Head Coach Tim Brewster

Coaching Staff

Tim Brewster

Head Coach • Third Season

In two short years as the head football coach at the University of Minnesota, Tim Brewster has taken some big steps toward getting Golden Gopher program back to its rightful place in the world of college football. Brewster has used his positive outlook and boundless energy to bring in two highly-regarded recruiting classes. On the field, the Gophers returned to postseason play in 2008 and were ranked as high as No. 17 in the nation for part of the season.

In 2008, Brewster's squad raced out to a 7-1 record to open the season. The Gophers were ranked No. 17 in the BCS at the end of October. Minnesota took part in the 2008 Insight Bowl, as Brewster led the Gophers to one of the biggest single-season turnarounds of the year.

A renewed emphasis on recruiting may be the most visible phase of Brewster's plan to help Minnesota football make history again.

That was proven out in February of each of the past two seasons. Brewster and his staff signed a consensus top-25 recruiting class that some experts even rated among the nation's top 15 in 2008. The significance of this accomplishment would be difficult to overstate at one the nation's traditional recruiting powers let alone Minnesota, where the average Rivals ranking for the Gophers' previous six recruiting classes was 54th.

Brewster and staff followed that up with a 2009 class that ranked in the top third of the nation.

But recruiting is just one building block of a blueprint Brewster developed while helping Mack Brown turn North Carolina from ACC doormat into a national power and rebuild Texas into one of the country's elite programs.

Brewster came to Minnesota after spending the previous five years as an assistant coach in the National Football League, including the 2005 and 2006 seasons as the tight ends coach of the Denver Broncos.

In addition to his productivity as a college recruiter, Brewster has also built a strong reputation for developing players during his 23-year coaching career.

Last season, wide receiver Eric Decker and defensive end Willie VanDeSteeg both earned first-team All-Big Ten honors. Decker set a Minnesota record for receptions in a season for the second consecutive year and became just the third Gopher wideout to record a 1,000-yard receiving season. VanDeSteeg finished his Minnesota career as the school's all-time leader in tackles for loss and finished No. 4 all-time in sacks.

It marked the first time the Gophers had multiple first-team All-Big Ten selections since 2005. VanDeSteeg's honor was also the first time a Minnesota defender had been voted to the first team since 2004.

In his first season at Minnesota, Brewster mentored then-freshman quarterback Adam Weber, who broke nearly all of the Gophers' single-season passing and total offense records during the 2007 season. Weber continued to improve in his sophomore campaign and was a 2008 second-team All-Big Ten selection.

In all, Minnesota had six athletes earn all-conference accolades in 2008, the most since the Gophers had a half-dozen on the 2005 All-Big Ten squad.

In 2007, Brewster also helped coach safety Dominique Barber to second-team All-Big Ten accolades and personally worked with punter Justin Kucek, expanding his repertoire with the effective and efficient flop punt and helping him evolve into one of the conferences top punters.

Brewster was named Minnesota's 26th head football coach on Jan. 17, 2007 after spending the previous five seasons as an assistant coach in the National Football League.

On the professional level, Brewster helped rookie Tony Scheffler lead the NFL in average yards per reception by a tight end with a 15.9-yard average. His tight ends also contributed to the Broncos finishing fourth in the AFC in rushing yards per game (134.5) during 2006.

Brewster's tight ends helped the Broncos post a 13-3 record and capture the AFC West title in 2005 en route to advancing to the AFC Championship Game. Jeb Putzier ranked fourth among NFL tight ends (2nd in AFC) in yards per reception average, posting a 13.0-yard average on 37 receptions for 481 yards. The blocking of Brewster's unit helped the club rank second in the NFL in rushing (158.7 ypg.) and place third in the league in fewest sacks allowed (23).

In 2005, Brewster also tutored rookie tight end Wesley Duke, who played basketball only in college and was an undrafted free agent. Duke caught a 1-yard touchdown pass for his first career catch at Buffalo (12/17/05) and started for the Broncos in the AFC Championship Game against the Steelers (1/22/06).

Brewster served as the San Diego Chargers tight ends coach from 2002-04 and held additional responsibilities as the club's assistant head coach for the 2004 season. He oversaw the rapid development of Antonio Gates, who like Duke, played basketball only in college and was an undrafted free agent.

Under Brewster, Gates would earn first-team All-Pro honors in 2004 from the Associated Press and was a Pro Bowl selection after playing only his second year of football since high school. He set an NFL single-season touchdown record (13) for tight ends in 2004 while ranking third in receiving yards (964) and fourth in receptions (81) among NFL tight ends.

In 2003, Gates' first NFL season, Brewster helped the young talent rank third for the Chargers with 24 receptions. While his tight ends showed progress as pass catchers, Brewster's unit was adept at blocking in a potent rushing attack that gained more than 2,100 yards on the ground in each of his three seasons with the team.

Before working for San Diego, Brewster coached collegiately for 14 years at the Division I-A level. Brewster enjoyed tremendous success as tight ends coach at the University of Texas (1998-2001) and as tight ends coach at the University of North Carolina (1989-97), where he also coached special teams and was the Tar Heels' recruiting coordinator. He worked on Brown's staffs at both schools and developed six tight ends who signed NFL contracts, including four who were selected in the NFL Draft.

In four years at Texas, Brewster's tight ends played a key role in the team advancing to a bowl game each season (two Cotton Bowls, two Holiday Bowls). He tutored two tight ends who earned All-Big 12 Conference honors, including 1998 first-team selection Derek Lewis, and coached two players who signed NFL contracts in Lewis and Bo Scaife, who was drafted in the sixth round by Tennessee in 2005.

Brewster's tight ends at Texas blocked for a 1,000-yard rusher in each of his four seasons at the school, highlighted by Ricky Williams' 2,124-yard (sixth-most in NCAA history) Heisman Trophy-winning season in 1998. Brewster developed Lewis into a scoring threat as well in 1998 as the tight end finished the year second on the Longhorns with six touchdown receptions in a season that ended with a Cotton Bowl win.

He honed the skills of a pair of converted Longhorns defensive ends in 1999 as well as true freshman Scaife, helping the tight ends total 24 receptions for 267 yards with four touchdowns. Scaife became a 2001 honorable mention All-Big 12 selection under Brewster's tutelage only one year after missing the entire season with a major knee injury.

In nine years at North Carolina, Brewster mentored four All-Atlantic Coast Conference selections at tight end and helped the school advance to six consecutive bowl games from 1992-97. As recruiting coordinator, his efforts secured the talent that helped the 1997 team go 11-1 and win the Gator Bowl.

Brewster, who served as a volunteer assistant at North Carolina for the 1989 season before earning a full-time position in 1990, oversaw the development of four Tar Heels tight ends who signed NFL contracts: Alge Crumpler (Falcons, 2001-present), Freddie Jones (Chargers, 1997-2001; Cardinals, 2002-04), Greg DeLong (Vikings, 1995-98; Ravens, 1999; Jaguars, 2000) and Deems May (Chargers, 1992- 96; Seahawks, 1997-99). Crumpler and Jones were second-round choices in the NFL Draft while May was a seventh-round selection.

Brewster guided Crumpler to second-team All-Atlantic Coast Conference distinction and honorable mention All-America accolades from Football News as a sophomore in 1997. He also mentored Jones to a first-team All-ACC selection in 1995 and again in 1996 when Jones set a North Carolina single-season record for receptions by a tight end (32) to garner third-team All-America honors from Football News.

His tight ends at North Carolina were critical to the team's rushing success as their blocking helped clear the way for five different 1,000-yard seasons, including Natrone Means' back-to-back 1,000-yard years in 1991 and '92. DeLong, a first-team All-ACC tight end in 1994, twice earned ACC Lineman of the Week honors for his blocking in 1996 under Brewster's tutelage.

Brewster spent 1987-88 as head coach at Central Catholic High School in Lafayette, Ind., directing a wide-open offense that won 15 of 23 games during that period. He developed Indiana's passing leader in both of his seasons as head coach.

He began his coaching career in 1986 at Purdue University, where he coached tight ends and offensive tackles as a graduate assistant.

A former two-time All-Big Ten Conference selection at the University of Illinois, Brewster led the nation's tight ends in receiving in 1983 and captained the Illini to the 1984 Rose Bowl vs. UCLA. Brewster, who graduated from Illinois with a bachelor's degree in political science, played in the training camps of the New York Giants (1984) and Philadelphia Eagles (1985).

Brewster was born October 13, 1960, in Phillipsburg, N.J. He and his wife, Cathleen, have three sons: Eric, Clint and Nolan.

Tim Cross

Associate Head Coach • Defensive Line • Third Season

COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- Coached defensive end Willie VanDeSteeg to First-Team All-Big Ten honors in 2008. VanDeSteeg became the first Gopher defender to be named First-Team All-Big Ten since 2004.
- The Gopher defensive line recovered six fumbles in 2008, helping Minnesota to a +.92 turnover margin, which ranked No. 2 in the Big Ten and No. 16 in the nation.
- Minnesota's defensive line accounted for 20.5 sacks in 2008, helping Minnesota rank No. 3 in the Big Ten and No. 24 in the nation in sacks per game (2.54).
- The Gophers' defensive line accounted for 44 tackles for loss in 2008, leading the Minnesota defensive unit to a No. 2 ranking in the Big Ten and No. 25 in the nation.
- Promoted to associate head coach following Minnesota's spring practice in 2008.
- Named one of the Top 25 recruiters in the nation by Rivals.
- Also named Big Ten Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.
- In 2006 as defensive line coach at Syracuse, Cross helped the Orange lead the Big East and finish seventh in the nation in turnover margin (+.92 per game).
- His front line at Syracuse averaged 2.8 sacks per game, which put the Orange in the top 20 in the nation.
- A big reason for the Orange's success in getting to opposing quarterbacks was Cross' work with 2006 Big East sack leader Jameel McClain. Along with McClain, Cross also mentored NFL Draft selections James Wyche and Ryan LaCasse while at Syracuse.
- As assistant strength coach at Texas from 2001-04, Cross assisted in the development and implementation of the strength and speed programs for the UT football squad. He was responsible for creating training programs for a Doak Walker, a Butkus and a Nagurski Trophy winner. Cross also played a key role in the development of numerous All-Americans and All-Big 12 performers, and his teams won at least nine games each season he coached with the Longhorns.
- Served as head coach at Thomas Jefferson High School in Denver, Colo., from 1997-2000, leading the team to four consecutive league titles and a 42-game conference winning streak.
- While at Jefferson, he mentored 14 high school All-Americans, 20 all-state selections and 31 first team all-conference players.
- During his time at Jefferson, Cross coached two consecutive Golden Helmet Award winners, a honor bestowed to high school football all-state honorees who are successful on and off the field. He also coached two future NFL first-round draft picks during his time at TJHS in Daniel Graham (New England Patriots) and Andre Woolfolk (Tennessee Titans).

ACCOMPLISHMENTS AS A PLAYER

- As a player at Northern Colorado, Cross was a four-year letterwinner, earning All-North Central Conference honors at linebacker.

COACHING HIGHLIGHTS

- Comes to Minnesota after coaching for eight seasons in the National Football League.
- Served as wide receivers coach for the Denver Broncos in 2008. The Broncos finished the season as the No. 2-ranked offense in the NFL. Denver was the No. 3 passing team in the league in 2008 as well.
- Tutored two Bronco wide receivers who finished in the top seven in the NFL in receiving yards during 2008. Brandon Marshall tallied 1,265 receiving yards on 104 receptions with six touchdowns. Meanwhile, Eddie Royal recorded 91 catches for 980 yards and five scores.
- Coached under Mike Shanahan while with the Broncos.
- Worked for the Baltimore Ravens for four seasons, prior to his time with Denver. Served as assistant quarterbacks coach in 2007, assistant quarterbacks/wide receivers coach from 2005-06 and offensive assistant in 2004.
- While with the Ravens, team went 13-3 and won the AFC North in 2006.
- Worked with quarterback Steve McNair during 2006 season, when McNair was named to the Pro Bowl and set a franchise record for completion percentage (.630, 295-of-468).
- Helped receivers Derrick Mason (68 receptions) and Mark Clayton (67 receptions) form one of just four tandems in the AFC that featured two players with 65 receptions or more.
- 2006 Ravens offense also finished No. 1 in the NFL in time of possession, No. 2 in sacks allowed and No. 9 in pass completions.
- In 2005, helped Clayton set franchise rookie records for receptions (44) and receiving yards (471). Also helped tutor Mason to the first 1,000-yard receiving season by a Raven in four years. While working with Baltimore receivers in 2005, the group ranked No. 3 in the NFL in fewest dropped passes (19).
- Coached under Brian Billick while with the Ravens.
- Spent his first three seasons in the NFL with the Houston Texans, working on both sides of the ball.
- Assisted with instruction of the linebackers during the Texans' 2002 inaugural season. Saw Jay Foreman and Jamie Sharper each register 137 tackles to tie for sixth in the NFL that season.
- Coached under Dom Capers while with the Texans.
- Served as a graduate assistant at the University of Florida under then-head coach Steve Spurrier in 1999 and 2000. Helped the Gators advance to the Citrus and Sugar Bowls, while winning a Southeastern Conference title in 2000.
- Began his coaching career as an assistant coach and defensive coordinator at P.K. Yonge High School in Gainesville, Fla. while he was still an undergraduate.
- First professional coaching position came with the Arena Football League's New Jersey Red Dogs, where he coached the wide receivers and handled quality control for offense and defense in 1998.

Josh Sternquist

Assistant Recruiting Coordinator

Josh Sternquist is the assistant recruiting coordinator at the University of Minnesota. He joined the Gophers in January and assisted in the Gophers' 2008 signing class that was rated as high as No. 14 nationally.

Prior to arriving in Minneapolis, Sternquist was the football and recruiting operations assistant at Wisconsin for four years. He assisted in all recruiting functions, football camps, team travel and operations. He began his career in intercollegiate athletics as an operations intern for Wisconsin Athletics in 2004.

Sternquist, a native of Belvidere, Ill., is a 2004 graduate of Wisconsin-Whitewater with a degree in physical education. He was a three-year starter at defensive back and a four-time WIAC Defensive Player of the Week. He finished his career tied for fourth all-time at Whitewater in career interceptions.

Sternquist and his wife Kalen are the parents of a daughter, Maggie.

Clint Cosgrove

Defensive Graduate Assistant

Clint Cosgrove is a defensive graduate assistant with the Gophers. Cosgrove assists Ronnie Lee with the defensive secondary.

Cosgrove was a defensive quality control intern at the University of Nebraska in 2006. In his one season working with the Huskers, Nebraska won the Big 12 North and appeared in the Big 12 Championship. The Huskers also finished that season ranked 24th nationally in scoring defense.

Cosgrove is a 2006 Arizona State graduate with a bachelor's degree in political science. The Madison, Wis., native played at the University of Wisconsin from 2001-02 before his career was shortened due to injury.

Jordan Gigli

Defensive Quality Control

Jordan Gigli is a defensive quality control for the Golden Gophers.

Gigli started his coaching career as defensive line coach and recruiting coordinator at Tri-State (Ind.) University in 2003. He would later serve on the Western Illinois staff as assistant defensive line coach in 2004 and assistant offensive line coach in 2005. Gigli moved on to Wittenberg (Ohio) University as defensive line coach and strength and conditioning coordinator in 2006, helping Wittenberg capture the NCAC Championship and reach the NCAA Division III playoffs for the first time since 2001. He helped Wittenberg rank first in the conference in scoring defense (13.7 ppg), rushing defense (70.1 ypg), and total defense (242.9 ypg) last season.

A native of Ft. Wayne, Ind., Gigli was a four-year letterwinner (1999-2002) and three-year starting defensive tackle at Tri-State. He was also a two-time first-team all-conference selection and helped lead TSU to their first conference championship in school history in 2001. Gigli graduated from Tri-State in 2003 with a degree in business administration.

Jim Jackson

Offensive Graduate Assistant

Jim Jackson is an offensive graduate assistant with the Gophers.

Jackson came to Minnesota from Louisiana-Lafayette, where he spent one season as a defensive graduate assistant working with the defensive line. Prior to working at ULL, Jackson spent the 2005 season as a graduate assistant working as video coordinator and with the offensive line at the University of Toledo. In 2004, Jackson served as assistant defensive backs coach and assistant video coordinator at Lehigh University. He started his coaching career in 2003 as the outside linebackers coach at Methodist (N.C.) College.

A Mesquite, Texas native, Jackson was a two-sport athlete at Cornell (N.Y.) University. Jackson played two seasons varsity on the football team and was a captain and three-year starter on the baseball team. He graduated from Cornell in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in communications.

Greg Roskos

Offensive Quality Control

Greg Roskos currently serves as offensive quality control for the Gopher football program.

Prior to his arrival in Minneapolis in 2007, Roskos spent two seasons (2005-06) as a graduate assistant, working with quarterbacks at Toledo. During his two seasons at UT, the Rockets offense ranked in the top 20 nationally and won the 2005 GMAC Bowl.

Roskos graduated from Bloomsburg (Pa.) University in 2002, and served as a student assistant working with linebackers at Bloomsburg later that year, helping the team earn its third straight conference championship. In 2003, he was the linebackers coach at Muhlenberg College, which won the Centennial Conference Championship and made the Division III playoffs. He would move on to Lafayette College in 2004 as assistant secondary coach, helping Lafayette win the Patriot League and reach the Division I-AA playoffs for the first time in school history.

A Scranton, Pa., native, Roskos was a four-year letterman and two-time all-conference selection as an outside linebacker at Bloomsburg. He led the team to two conference titles and was named the 2000 Defensive MVP of the Bloomsburg squad which reached the D-II national championship game.

H.H.H. METRODOME 1982-2008

The Hubert H. Humphrey Metrodome, home of Golden Gopher football 1982-2008, is the nation's largest air-supported, multiple-use facility. It has been the site of two World Series, a Super Bowl and two NCAA Final Fours, and has kept over five million college football fans warm as they watched and cheered University of Minnesota football. The Gophers played their final season in the Dome in 2008 before heading back on campus for the opening of TCF Bank Stadium.

In addition to serving as the home facility for the Golden Gophers, the Metrodome is home to the Minnesota Vikings and Twins. In 1989, it also served as home to the Timberwolves, who set the all-time NBA attendance record in their inaugural season.

The Metrodome is located in downtown Minneapolis, just minutes away from the University campus. Its seating capacity is listed at 64,172, but more than 65,000 fans have packed the place for Minnesota football, including a crowd of 65,089 for the game against border-rival Wisconsin in 2005. A stadium record 65,184 attended the Minnesota-Iowa game in 2002.

MEMORIAL STADIUM 1924-1981

Opened on Oct. 4, 1924, Memorial Stadium served as the home of the Golden Gophers for 57 years. The stadium was dedicated to the 3,527 university workers and graduates who served in World War I, 98 of whom died in service. Built on approximately 11 acres where the current University Recreation Center, Aquatic Center and McNamara Alumni Center stand today, Memorial Stadium had 52,736 permanent seats but could seat over 56,000. The horseshoe-shaped stadium also served as the home track and field facility. With the addition of temporary bleacher seating, more than 60,000 fans could fit into Memorial Stadium as a stadium-record 66,284 fans watched Minnesota face Purdue on Nov. 18, 1966.

The stadium, which took seven months to construct, cost $572,000 to build. More than 475 workers were employed for the construction that required more than 1.4 million feet of lumber, one million bricks and 90,000 sacks of cement. Minnesota played its first game in Memorial Stadium on Oct. 4, 1924, defeating North Dakota 14-0. Tickets for the inaugural game were just one dollar.

The Golden Gophers had a stellar record in Memorial Stadium, including 12 unbeaten seasons at home. They didn't suffer a losing season at home from the building's inception in 1924 until 1950, a span of 26 years.

Memorial Stadium was changed to artificial turf in 1970 but then switched back to natural grass in 1977. The stadium was demolished in 1989 and 2,000 of the original bricks were used in the building of Mariucci Arena. University officials debated renovation of Memorial Stadium, but instead opted for a move to the Metrodome.

GREATER NORTHROP FIELD 1899-1923

Named in honor of University President Cyrus Northrop, Greater Northrop Field opened its doors in 1899. Prior to the stadium's construction, the University of Minnesota played on a field south of the Armory. The grandstand consisted of chairs around the sidelines. When rates for a downtown stadium increased, the University found it a necessity for an enclosed stadium on the campus.

Built in front of Pillsbury Hall, which still stands today, the Northrop Field originally featured a nine-foot high board fence built by the student body. A quarter-mile track ran around the playing field. Alfred Pillsbury organized the building of a massive brick fence that was built around the original grandstand that made Northrop Field unlike any other stadium in the country at the time. The grandstand seated 8,000 fans and was 33 rows high. Additional seating in the end zones added to the seating capacity.

Minnesota played its first game at Northrop Field in November of 1899 against Northwestern where it suffered an 11-5 defeat. The last game was played in 1923 when Minnesota beat Iowa 20-7. Perhaps the most memorable game was a 6-6 tie with Michigan when an over capacity 20,000 fans crowded into the stadium.

1934 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The Golden Gopher football program is one built strongly on tradition. After winning the first-ever Big Nine team title in 1900 and outscoring opponents by an incredible 618-12 margin in 1903, the University of Minnesota football team finally won its first national championship in 1934.

Under the leadership of third-year coach Bernie Bierman, the Golden Gophers averaged 33.7 points during the 1934 campaign, relying heavily on a potent running attack. The running game accounted for nearly 295 of the 325 yards the Maroon and Gold averaged each game. The Golden Gophers were equally productive on the defensive side of the ball, shutting-out four of their eight opponents, while holding them to a meager 4.7 points and 103 yards per game.

Three players led Minnesota while earning All-America honors — Francis "Pug" Lund, Bill Bevan and Butch Larson, who earned the honor for a second straight year. Larson became only the fourth Golden Gopher to earn All-America status for two straight years, and is among 14 players to date in Minnesota history to earn such a distinction. In addition to Lund, Bevan and Larson, the Golden Gophers featured three more All-Big Ten players. Perhaps the biggest key to Minnesota's success, however, was a running attack which saw eight different players score touchdowns during the season, led by Stan Kostka with nine touchdowns, including a four-touchdown game.

The talented Golden Gopher team cruised through the first two games of the season with a 56-12 pounding of North Dakota State and a 20-0 victory over Nebraska.

After two weeks of rest, Minnesota looked flat against the Pittsburgh Panthers. They trailed 7-0 after three quarters and were destroyed in nearly every statistical category. The Golden Gophers' hopes for a perfect season were fading. Minnesota was down, but they were not beaten. In the fourth quarter, Larson took the game over by recovering a fumble which led to a touchdown. On the very next series, he threw the winning pass into the end zone. Minnesota's dream for a title refused to die.

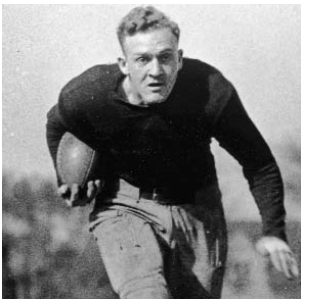
The following weekend, the Golden Gophers rebounded in style by crushing the rival Iowa Hawkeyes in Iowa City, Iowa, 48-12. Head Coach Bernie Bierman couldn't have been happier with his team's reaction to their subpar performance against Pittsburgh. The Golden Gophers held the Hawkeyes to 129 total yards. Minnesota, on the other hand, had little problem moving the ball as they racked up an astounding 514 yards on offense, all of them coming from the running game. Minnesota was led by the exceptional performance of Kostka, who had another outstanding game, scoring three touchdowns, as well as Julius Alfonse, who rushed for two scores.

After dismantling Iowa, Minnesota was still eager to get back on the field. The next opponent was Michigan, and the Golden Gophers sought revenge. They had not brought the Little Brown Jug back to Memorial Stadium since 1927. Michigan came into Minneapolis sporting a 1-3 record and as the game progressed, proved that a vast talent gap existed between the two teams. Minnesota breezed by the Wolverines 34-0 and the Golden Gopher defense continued to impress crowds as they held Michigan scoreless on a mere 56 total yards for the game. In the meantime, the Maroon and Gold running attack never lost a step as five different players scored touchdowns.

The Golden Gophers continued to roll over opponents in the ensuing weeks, beating Indiana 30-0 and Chicago 35-7. Indiana gained a grand total of zero yards against the smothering Minnesota defense, while Chicago was able to manage 82 yards. With four solid games since the Pittsburgh scare, Bierman and the Golden Gophers had every right to be confident about their chances of winning a conference and national championship heading into Wisconsin.

The Badgers were not a high-scoring team, nor did they allow teams many touchdowns. On this day, however, the Golden Gophers flexed their muscle and scored 34 points against a defense that had only allowed 50 previously. With the victory over Wisconsin, Minnesota wrapped up its perfect season and first national championship.

Minnesota's 1934 national title team had three All-Americans in Butch Larson, Pug Lund and Bill Bevan.



1935 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Bernie Bierman started his fourth season as the head football coach at Minnesota in 1935. After leading the Golden Gophers to their first national championship in 1934, expectations ran high for both Bierman and the team.

While the Golden Gophers were hurt by the graduation of three All-Americans from the 1934 season, three other players stepped up their play to earn the same honor in 1935. Tackles Ed Widseth and Dick Smith, along with guard Bud Wilkinson earned All-America honors, while quarterback Babe LeVoir and fullback Sheldon Beise joined the All-America threesome on the All-Big Ten team.

Minnesota opened the 1935 season with a schedule mirroring the previous season with games against North Dakota State and Nebraska to start the year. While the outcome was ultimately the same with the Golden Gophers netting two victories, the offensive production was not quite as stunning. After defeating NDSU 26-6, Minnesota traveled to Lincoln, Neb., to take on the Cornhuskers.

Nebraska showed improvement from the previous season when the Golden Gophers rolled over them 20-0. Minnesota headed into the second quarter trailing 7-6, but was able to put another touchdown on the board before the half to lead 12-7. Nebraska's defense was outstanding the remainder of the game and did not allow the Golden Gophers another touchdown. The Minnesota defense was just as stellar, however, and the Golden Gophers walked away from Lincoln with a 12-7 victory.

While Minnesota's offense was not putting up the same numbers as 1934, the Golden Gopher defense remained just as stifling. Against Nebraska the defense allowed only five first downs and 110 yards, so it was no surprise when Tulane ran into the same brick wall the next weekend in Minneapolis.

The visitors from Louisiana could do nothing right against Minnesota's superior defense, which held them to a mere 60 yards for the game. Minnesota's offense was still sputtering, however, as it managed only 183 total yards, all of them on the ground. The Golden Gophers beat Tulane soundly by a score of 20-0, but there was a bit of concern surrounding offensive production heading into the Northwestern game.

The last time the Golden Gophers played Northwestern was in 1933 when the two teams battled to a 0-0 tie. The result in 1935 was much the same and after three quarters Minnesota held a meager 14-13 lead. Northwestern threatened to move into scoring position late in the fourth quarter, but Wilkinson intercepted a Wildcat pass and returned it to the Northwestern 15-yard line. The Golden Gophers went on to score a touchdown and earn a hard-fought 21-13 win.

If there was any concern over the status of Golden Gopher football after the Northwestern game, Bierman's squad was quick to put it to rest. The Northwestern game was the turning point for Minnesota.

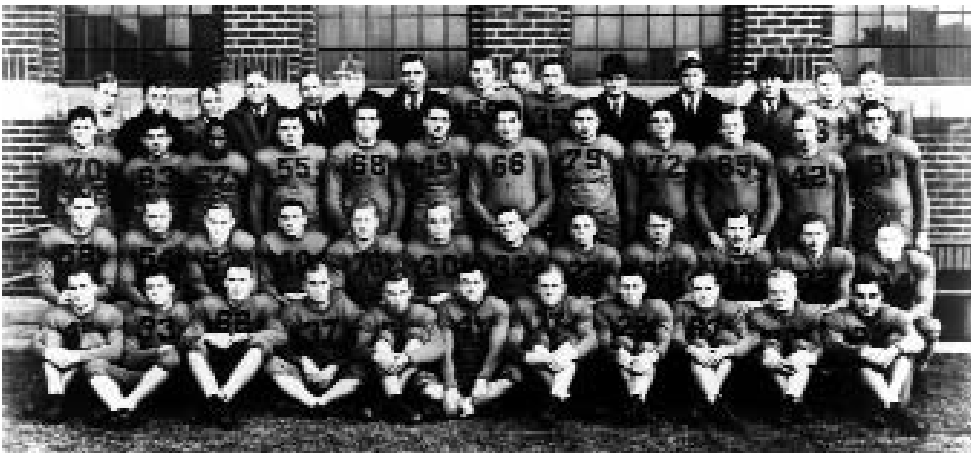
After Northwestern, the Golden Gophers went on to pound opponents by a total score of 115-20 and Beise scored five of his seven touchdowns for the season in those four games. The Minnesota offense seemed to be back on track, but it was tested one last time against the University of Iowa.

The Iowa game held a bit more importance for Minnesota than it had in years past. After the 1934 game in which Minnesota had knocked Iowa's star running back Ozzie Simmons out of the game, Iowa fans were livid and talks of post game mobs buzzed throughout Iowa City. Governor Clyde Herring expressed the same emotion and said, "If the officials stand for any rough tactics like Minnesota used last year, I'm sure the crowd won't."

This caused some concern for Minnesotans and Governor Floyd Olson. In attempt to cool tempers on both sides, Olson bet a prize Minnesota hog against a prize Iowa hog as a friendly gesture. So began the tradition of "Floyd of Rosedale," with the Golden Gophers winning a clean, hard-fought game 13-6 and Olson earning himself a prize Iowa hog.

Minnesota cruised through the remainder of its schedule, beating Michigan, 40-0, and Wisconsin, 33-7. Once again the Golden Gophers had wrapped up an undefeated season and also a national championship by beating the Badgers.

Minnesota's 1935 national title team had three All-Americans in Bud Wilkinson, Dick Smith and Ed Widseth.



1936 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

Prior to the 1936 football season, the Minnesota football team had gone 24 games without a loss and won back-to-back national titles in both 1934 and 1935. Needless to say, a national championship trend had caught on at the U of M, so the goals for 1936 proved to be no different.

What was going to be different about the 1936 season was the level of competition that the Maroon and Gold would face. Instead of beating up on smaller schools in non-conference games, Head Coach Bernie Bierman added two tough games to the schedule. Rather than playing North Dakota State and Tulane, the Golden Gophers would travel to the University of Washington to take on the fifth-ranked Huskies, and then the University of Texas at home. The tough schedule combined with previous struggles the Golden Gophers had experienced against Northwestern and Nebraska, appeared to present a challenge for the two-time national champions.

Minnesota was set to open the 1936 season against Washington in Seattle, but it was a game that almost did not happen.

The Golden Gophers boarded the train in Minneapolis on Tuesday of that week for a four-day trip to the Pacific Northwest. Coach Bierman scheduled two practices along the way, one in Miles City, Mont., and one in Spokane, Wash., but it was a one-night stay in Missoula, Mont., that almost cost Minnesota its chance with the Huskies.

Asleep in the Florence Hotel in Missoula, the Golden Gophers were forced to wake up around 3 a.m. after it was discovered the building was on fire. The fire destroyed most of the hotel, forcing the team to return to the train for the remainder of the evening. Luckily, nobody was hurt in the disaster.

Once in Seattle, as expected, the game proved a tough one for Minnesota. The stadium was packed with 40,000 Washington fans cheering for the local team. The Huskies tied the Golden Gophers, 7-7, in the third quarter, but to no avail.

The play of Minnesota's Bud Wilkinson and Julian Alfonse proved too much for Washington. Wilkinson knocked down several Washington passes and kicked two extra points before catching a 60-yard pass to put the Golden Gophers in scoring position in the fourth quarter. Alfonse almost single-handedly shut down the Husky offense as he intercepted three passes at the goal line and led Minnesota's ground attack. As a result, Minnesota's win-streak remained in tact as they defeated Washington 14-7.

After narrowly escaping from Seattle with a victory, the Golden Gophers returned home to take on Nebraska the following week. With a grueling trip behind them and an improved Cornhusker team on the field, Minnesota had a difficult time with the second game of the year as well. Nebraska put up a valiant fight, but the Golden Gopher defense foiled the Cornhuskers who could not find the end zone in a 7-0 Minnesota win.

The first two games of the season had threatened Minnesota's win streak, but the next two games left no doubt why the Golden Gophers were the reigning two-time defending national champions. Minnesota romped over Purdue 33-0, and handed Michigan a 26-0 loss to bring home the Little Brown Jug for the third year in a row.

The two solid victories against Michigan and Purdue led into another huge game for the Golden Gophers at Northwestern. Northwestern was highly-ranked in the national polls and it appeared as if this game would determine the Big Ten and possibly the national champion.

Game day conditions were less than ideal as wind and rain persisted throughout the game, hindering ball movement by both teams. Neither team made a serious threat to score in the first half and all statistics were virtually even. The scoreless battle continued until the fourth quarter.

The Wildcats scored at the beginning of the fourth quarter, but failed to convert the extra point attempt. Minnesota put together three furious drives, all edging inside Northwestern's 20-yard line. The Golden Gophers were on the brink of defeat for the first time in 28 games. The Maroon and Gold saw their last chance slip away as a fourth down pass into the end zone was batted away with less than six minutes left. Minnesota's win streak was over. Northwestern dealt the Golden Gophers their first defeat in three years.

Minnesota came out of the Northwestern game with something to prove. They did just that. The Golden Gophers ripped through Iowa, 52-0, to bring home Floyd of Rosedale for the second consecutive time. They also crushed Texas, 47-19, and finished off the season against Wisconsin with a 24-0 victory.

Amazingly enough, even with a loss and no Big Ten Conference title, Minnesota was still voted the 1936 national champion. The Golden Gophers may have lost to Northwestern, but allowed only two other opponents to score. The thorough dominance Minnesota had demonstrated earned them an unprecedented third straight national championship.

Bernie Bierman led Minnesota to its third straight natinal title in 1936.

1940 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

After three straight national championships from 1934-36, the University of Minnesota suffered its first losing season under legendary coach Bernie Bierman in 1939 when it finished 3-4-1. The experience proved a humbling one for the Golden Gophers who were not accustomed to losing and the result was unpredictable. Minnesota rallied from a mediocre season to win its fourth national championship in 1940.

The Golden Gopher offense was highlighted by the dynamic running tandem of George Franck and Bruce Smith who, together, combined to score over 60 percent of the touchdowns for the Maroon and Gold. Smith starred by scoring winning touchdowns on three separate occasions, while Franck was named an All-American at the conclusion of the season — highlighted by his four touchdowns against the University of Iowa.

Before Minnesota could face a Big Ten opponent, they had to battle with such highly-touted non-conference teams as Washington and Nebraska. Fortunately for the Golden Gophers, both games were at Memorial Stadium.

Heading into the 1940 season, Minnesota had never lost to Washington. The Huskies were ready to change that. Though Minnesota was outplayed in nearly every offensive category, a combination of outstanding kick returns and tough defense allowed the Golden Gophers to squeak by 19-14.

The Golden Gophers were never supposed to get by the Huskies and defeating Nebraska the following weekend seemed even more unlikely. Nebraska knew about the outstanding two-touchdown performance Franck displayed against Washington. Minnesota would have little chance if the Cornhuskers could shut down the running game.

Nebraska's game plan worked wonders on Franck and Smith. What they had not counted on was the superb play of William Daley and William Johnson, who gained nearly 300 yards on the ground for the Golden Gophers. Minnesota's defense once again showed it was golden as it held Nebraska to only 25 yards on the ground. This took the Cornhuskers out of their game and vaulted Minnesota to a 13-7 victory.

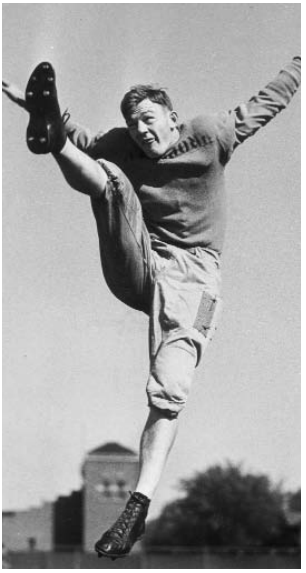
Minnesota kept up its streak of close games when it defeated Ohio State 13-7. The Golden Gophers were soundly beaten on paper, and most likely would have been beaten on the scoreboard had it not been for the stellar play of Smith and his two touchdowns.

The next week, Franck finally broke open the Minnesota offense with his four touchdown performance in the Golden Gophers' 34-6 drubbing of Iowa. The celebration would not last long, however, as Minnesota next faced Northwestern — a team that had beaten the Golden Gophers for two straight seasons.

The way Minnesota was playing, Northwestern did not figure to be an overly difficult opponent. They were much improved, however, and the Golden Gopher — Wildcat game had a tradition of being battles to the end. From 1932 to 1949, no Minnesota — Northwestern game was ever decided by more than a single touchdown. The same held true in 1940 as the Golden Gophers edged out Northwestern 13-12. Were it not for two missed point-after attempts by the Wildcats, Minnesota's dream season may have been over.

If college football fans missed the Northwestern game, the game against Michigan proved to be a near carbon copy. Minnesota won, 7-6, once again as a result of a missed point-after attempt. Smith proved to be a major factor in the game as he gained 116 of Minnesota's 205 total yards and scored the lone Golden Gopher touchdown.

After winning two very close games against two quality Big Ten opponents, Minnesota headed into the final two games of the season excited about its chances of bringing a national championship back to Minnesota after a three-year absence. To do so, they would have to get by Purdue and Wisconsin. Neither team proved to be a match for the Golden Gophers as they beat Purdue 33-6, before defeating Wisconsin in the final game of the season, 22-13, to win their fourth national championship in seven years.



George "Sonny" Franck was an All-American in 1940.

1941 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

After returning to the national spotlight in 1940, expectations for the 1941 Golden Gophers were high once again. On top of an already difficult Big Ten schedule, Minnesota had to go to battle once again with national powers Nebraska and Washington. But talk of another title flowed freely throughout Memorial Stadium.

The real superstar, and the key to Minnesota's national title hopes, proved to be Bruce Smith. While Smith was only the third leading rusher on the team, his outstanding play and attitude on the field earned him widespread recognition. He not only earned All-Big Ten and All-America status, but also became Minnesota's first and only player to ever win the Heisman Trophy. While Smith's individual accomplishments were among the greatest in Minnesota history, the fight that the Golden Gophers put up during the 1941 season was every bit as exciting.

Minnesota opened the 1941 campaign against Washington in Seattle. The Huskies had established themselves as a dominant force, and games between the two teams traditionally proved to be very close.

This season's match-up was to be more of the same. The Golden Gophers managed only 213 yards on the ground, 189 of them between Smith and Bill Daley. In the end it was the Minnesota defense who prevailed, smothering its opponent time after time as the Maroon and Gold escaped from Seattle with a 14-6 victory.

Minnesota opened its Big Ten schedule with the conference doormat, Illinois. As expected, the Golden Gophers rolled over the Orange and Blue 34-6. It proved to be a good preparatory game before another non-conference tilt against Pittsburgh.

Minnesota had not played Pittsburgh since the Golden Gophers won their first national championship in 1934. The Panthers gave Minnesota everything they wanted and more in 1934, but 1941 proved to be a different story. Minnesota dominated the Panthers in every aspect of the game. Despite fumbling the ball away four times, the offense racked up 39 points, while the defense stood strong by intercepting two passes and not allowing the Panthers a taste of the end zone.

After the Pittsburgh game, the Maroon and Gold headed into the meat of its schedule against Michigan, Northwestern, Nebraska, and Iowa. It was clear that if the Golden Gophers wanted to repeat as national champions that this stretch of the schedule would determine just how good the team truly was.

Michigan and Northwestern appeared to be the two greatest threats to Minnesota's title hopes. Both teams had established themselves among the best in the conference and historically had given Minnesota fits. History was on Minnesota's side, however, as they had emerged with victories in almost every close game in the past 10 seasons.

Michigan was looking to rain on Minnesota's national championship parade after the Golden Gophers had defeated them on Bruce Smith's lastminute touchdown the previous season. Michigan was able to contain Smith and Daley reasonably well, but in the end the Wolverine offense could not beat Minnesota's defense and the Golden Gophers squeaked out a 7-0 victory.

Northwestern wanted revenge much the same as Michigan since Minnesota had come away with a one point victory the previous season. Northwestern had luck on its side as Smith was injured and unable to carry the ball for the Golden Gophers. It appeared as if the elements were in line for the Wildcats to dethrone the reigning national champions. It was not to be however. Without Smith, Bud Higgins stepped up his game to gain 96 yards for the Golden Gophers and lead them to another exciting one point win over Northwestern, 8-7.

Minnesotans were somewhat concerned with their chances to win without Smith on the field. Against Iowa Head Coach Bernie Bierman chose to sit Smith out and not risk further injuring his knee. After one quarter, the Golden Gophers had not gained a single yard on the ground. Smith realized that if Minnesota was to win another championship he had to contribute. After convincing coach Bierman to put him in the game, Smith put the Golden Gophers in position to score three touchdowns. While Smith did not gain a large number of yards, he had helped to keep the Minnesota championship hopes alive.

The Golden Gophers closed out their season playing the University of Wisconsin. For the fifth time in eight years, Minnesota beat the Badgers to end the season and wrap up a national championship, making Bernie Bierman the winningest coach in school history.

Bruce Smith won the Heisman Trophy and was a first team All-American in 1941.

Dick Wildung was named a first team All-American in 1941.

1960 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

The 1960-61 athletic season proved to be one of the most productive ever for the University of Minnesota Athletics Department. Swimmer Steve Jackman won the NCAA 100-yard freestyle while setting the American record, and the hockey team placed third at the NCAA Tournament. The crowning achievements, however, were the two national championships the school won. Baseball won its second national title in four years, while the Minnesota football team returned to national prominence by winning its sixth national title.

Murray Warmath entered his seventh season as the Minnesota head football coach on the heels of three consecutive losing seasons.

Expectations to start the season were not very high as the Golden Gophers were not ranked by a single news service. To add insult to pre-season injury, Minnesota lost to the alumni squad 19-7. The outlook for the 1960 season did not appear to be a bright one.

The Golden Gophers opened the season against Nebraska, a game which virtually no one gave Minnesota a chance to win. Minnesota surprised everyone, thanks to strong performances by All-America lineman Tom Brown and quarterback Sandy Stephens. Stephens completed 5-of-6 pass attempts and kept Nebraska pinned deep by averaging 40.1 yards per punt on seven boots.

Minnesota's 26-14 win over Nebraska did not quiet doubters in the least and was considered a fluke. The Golden Gophers headed into the Big Ten schedule with something to prove.

Minnesota opened the Big Ten season with an impressive 42-0 rout of Indiana. Minnesota's offense sputtered in the first three quarters, but exploded for four touchdowns in the final quarter — two within 60 seconds of each other.

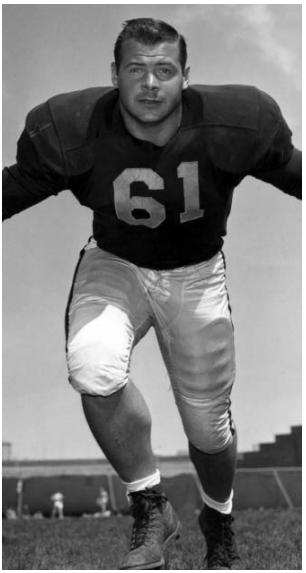
The Golden Gophers next looked to a Northwestern team which had beaten them in each of the previous two years. It looked to be a good challenge for Warmath's undefeated team, especially since they had to contend with Northwestern's outstanding quarterback, Dick Thornton. Minnesota's offense stole the show the week before, and now it was the defense's turn to star against Northwestern. Tom Brown repeatedly leveled Thornton on rushing attacks and held him to minus-14 net yards rushing. When Brown was not stopping Thornton on the ground, he was forcing him into poor passing decisions as the U of M came away with a 7-0 victory over the Wildcats.

The Golden Gophers established their defense as among the toughest in the conference, but against Illinois the Golden Gophers flip-flopped positions and they took an outstanding offensive performance to wrap up the game. Stephens starred by scoring all three Minnesota touchdowns en route to a 21-10 win. Minnesota realized that they must play consistently on the offensive side of the ball in order to keep winning.

Warmath managed to get more consistency out of his offense the next three games, while the defense continued to stifle opponents. The Golden Gophers beat Michigan, 10-0, then went on to defeat Kansas State and Iowa, 48-7 and 27-10, respectively. Minnesota appeared to be rolling with only two games remaining in the regular season.

The Purdue Boilermakers were among the worst teams in the conference in 1960 and looked to pose little problem for the seemingly unstoppable Golden Gophers. Minnesota showed flashes of the alumni game, however, and was shocked 23-14 at Memorial Stadium. The loss was huge. It vaulted Iowa into first place in the major polls, and put Minnesota in a tie for first in the Big Ten. The Golden Gophers had a must-win game against Wisconsin to end the season.

The Badgers were also a fairly weak team, but there would be no repeat upset over the Golden Gophers in the final game of the season as Minnesota cruised to a 26-7 victory. Minnesota's win, coupled with an 8-1 record, earned them enough votes to take over first place from Iowa in both the final AP and UPI polls. The Golden Gophers had earned their sixth national championship and first-ever trip to the Rose Bowl in the process.



Tom Brown won the Outland Trophy and was a first team All-American in 1960.

LITTLE BROWN JUG

Minnesota vs. Michigan

The story of "The Little Brown Jug," neither little nor brown, began at the turn of the century. The fabled "point-a-minute" Michigan football squads, coached by Fielding Yost, were destroying everyone in the nation, and had won 28 straight games heading into Minneapolis in 1903.

The pregame revelry pulsed through the campus. Minnesota had one of its best teams in school history and expected to give Yost's squad a run for their money. Before the game, students paraded across the field with various painted livestock, while fans filtered into the stadium from a constant stream of arriving streetcars. The 20,000 fans, positioned in bleachers, as well as atop trees and telephone poles, remained civil until the Gophers scored a second-half touchdown that tied the score at 6-6. At this point, fans stormed the field in celebration, causing pandemonium so great that the game had to be called with two minutes remaining on the clock.

On the morning following the contest, Minnesota custodian Oscar Munson carried an earthenware water jug to the office of L. J. Cooke, head of the athletics department. Munson pronounced in a heavy Scandinavian accent, "Jost left his yug." Still giddy from the tie, they decided to keep the prize, and painted on its side "Michigan Jug - Captured by Oscar, October 31, 1903," and the score, "Minnesota 6, Michigan 6." The Minnesota score appeared comically "as big as a house," dwarfing the Michigan score beside it. Yost sent a letter asking Minnesota to return the jug. Cooke wrote back "if you want it, you'll have to win it."

The two teams didn't play again until 1909. Michigan won the game that year, and Minnesota dutifully returned the jug. In 1910, Michigan left the conference, and Minnesota didn't have a chance to win it back until 1919. That year the Gophers, led by their star Arnie Oss, stormed into Ann Arbor and pounded the Wolverines 34-7 on their own Ferry Field. When Minnesota asked for the symbolic trophy at the end of the game, their rivals couldn't find it. But the Gopher players persisted, and Wolverine equipment man Henry Hatch came up with it after a short time, saying that he found it "overgrown behind a clump of shrubbery near the gym." Later, Minnesota historians said, "…but most likely it was found in a trophy case inside the gymnasium, easily dusted off and proudly brought back to Minnesota."

Cooke took out his paint brush again to paint that year's result. In the end, his two artistic attempts had taken up the whole surface of the five gallon jug, so when Michigan took it back the next year, the two schools decided to give the entire jug a colorful gloss. Now, the results of 86 games — including two in one season (1926) are embossed on on its sides: 66 won by Michigan, 22 by Minnesota, and three ties. Due to the Big Ten's unbalanced schedule, Minnesota and Michigan did not face each other in either 1999 or 2000, breaking a consecutive streak of annual contests that dated back to the 1929 season.

After a 20-year absence, Minnesota returned the jug to its original home with a last-second victory over Michigan in 2005 in Ann Arbor. Following a 61-yard run by Gary Russell with just over a minute remaining, Jason Giannini hit a 30-yard field goal as time expired, giving the Gophers the 23-20 victory. In jubilation of their first win over the Wolverines since 1986, the Gopher players stormed the Michigan sideline to secure the prodigious prize.

Cooke once mused on the strange power within the stonewear crock, "I sometimes think that the jug has been filled with spirits, not alcoholic, but the disembodied spirits of the countless players who have fought for it on the gridiron..."

In many ways, the jug represents the history of college football. It overflows with historic battles for national and conference championships, and may indeed be filled with the spirits of gridiron men who went on to win Heisman Trophies and Hall of Fame honors. It is the most famous of all college rivalry trophies, and no other inanimate object comes close to the aura of tradition like the Little Brown Jug.

FLOYD OF ROSEDALE

Minnesota vs. Iowa

The states of Minnesota and Iowa battle it out every year in college football, when their teams face each other in one of the most emotional rivalries in the country. The winner of the game earns the right to keep the bronze statue of a pig called "Floyd of Rosedale."

The year was 1935, and emotions were running hot heading into the Minnesota-Iowa game. Bernie Bierman's Gophers were 5-0, and Ossie Solem's Hawkeyes were 4-0-1. Iowa had recently been reinstated to eligibility following a suspension for slush-fund violations, a suspension that had been ardently supported by a Minnesota representative. To make matters worse, Iowa fans still remembered the contest from the year before, when Minnesota players had roughed up Hawkeye star Ozzie Simmons so badly that he had to leave the game because of injuries.

The game in 1935 was at Iowa, and the host state had not forgotten either of the incidents. Iowa Governor Clyde Herring incited the fans and joined in the bitter feelings toward the state to the north and its football squad by saying, "If the officials stand for any rough tactics like Minnesota used last year, I'm sure the crowd won't."

Greatly alarmed, Minnesota's Governor Floyd Olson tried to cool the hot heads of fans on both sides of the border with his telegrammed answer to Herring. "Minnesota folks are excited over your statement about Iowa crowds lynching the Minnesota football team. I have assured them you are law abiding gentlemen and are only trying to get our goat...I will bet you a Minnesota prize hog against an Iowa prize hog that Minnesota wins."

The diplomatic tactic eased the tension, and the game was a hard-fought, but cleanly played, 13-6 Minnesota victory. More importantly, no mob of angry fans got involved in any postgame, extracurricular activity. The Golden Gophers brought home "Floyd of Rosedale," an award-winning prize pig which had been donated by Allen Loomis, the owner of Rosedale Farms near Fort Dodge, Iowa, and named after the Minnesota governor.

A few days later, Governor Herring collected Floyd and personally walked him into Governor Olson's carpeted office. About the same time, news surfaced that an Iowa fan had sworn out a warrant charging Herring with gambling. Olson good-naturedly offered asylum, but Herring declined. "I might have to go home and write out a pardon for myself," Herring joked.

Governor Olson later offered Floyd up as the grand prize in a state-wide essay-writing contest, which was won by 14-year old Robert Jones. Jones later sold the hog to the U of M. A year later, the University sold Floyd to J.B. Gjerdrum, a breeder who lived near Mabel, Minn., on the Iowa-Minnesota border, for "about $50" according to Gjerdrum. Sadly, in a death most unbefitting a figure of such stature, Floyd passed on to that great pigpen in the sky. As Gjerdrum noted, "We had him about a year. There was hog cholera around…One day he just leaned up against a straw pile and died."

The spirit of good sportsmanship embodied by Floyd lives on in the form of a 15 1/2-inch high, 21-inch long bronze statue of the prize hog. The sculpture was commissioned by Governor Olson and created by Charles Brioschi, a St. Paul artist.

Every year, since 1935, these two border-state rivals have fought for the right to pen the bronze pig in their own trophy case. During that span, Minnesota has won Floyd 38 times, Iowa has won 33, and there have been two ties. From 1983 to 2000, Minnesota and Iowa saved each other for the most important and emotional season finale slot. Every college football season, Minnesota and Iowa fight for "Floyd of Rosedale," a symbol of how interstate tension can be averted through athletic competition.

PAUL BUNYAN'S AXE

Minnesota vs. Wisconsin

At 118 games and counting, the series between Minnesota and Wisconsin ranks as the longest in Division 1-A football; and "Paul Bunyan's Axe" has the history of one of college football's fiercest rivalries emblazoned on its six-foot long handle. The first game in the series, a 63-0 Gopher victory in 1890, is printed on the handle near the axe's head. The results of every successive game line the handle in red ink. There have been so many games that the scores scroll up and down the width of both sides of the handle, and school officials have now resorted to writing scores on the narrow edges of the six-foot shaft.

By 1930, "Paul Bunyan's Axe" wasn't even created, although the rivalry had already reached feverish levels. The 1906 game was canceled by President Theodore Roosevelt, who had decided to cool off heated college football rivalries, because of injuries and deaths on the field. In 1914, Minnesota faced the Badgers for the Gophers' first Homecoming game; likewise, Wisconsin hosted Minnesota for the Badgers' first in 1919. Between the years 1923 and 1925, the teams battled to three straight ties.

To symbolically capture the amazing atmosphere of the annual match-up, Dr. R.B. Fouch of Minneapolis fashioned a bacon slab out of black walnut to serve as the traveling trophy that he hoped would compare to the well-known "Little Brown Jug," which Minnesota and Michigan played for every year. The "Slab of Bacon," first played for in 1930, had a football carved on top inscribed with an "M" or "W", depending on how you held it. The idea was that the winning team would "bring home the bacon."

But in the early '40s, the Slab of Bacon became the "Missing Slab of Bacon." Peg Watrous, who was the president of Wisconsin women students at the time, relates that she and her counterpart from Minnesota were to have a symbolic exchange after the game, whereby the trophy would be awarded to the winning team. Minnesota won, but in characteristic fashion, a postgame melee broke out on the field, with students and spectators running crazy over the field. Watrous couldn't find her counterpart, and was left "holding the bacon," as it were. "I have no memory of what happened after that…The whole thing was a dud, as I feared it would be," Watrous remembered good-humoredly, "and someone in charge probably hid the bacon."

But the two teams had to play for something, so in 1948 the Wisconsin W Club instituted "Paul Bunyan's Axe" as a trophy more befitting the grand rivalry between the two schools. The annual battles have survived so long that in the '60s the teams started to print the games' final scores smaller and smaller, scrunching the letters in order to avoid reaching the end of the axe's shaft. But the series continued to roll, and the last game to be painted on the broad face of the handle was in 1980. The subsequent games appear on the narrow side of the handle.

The Slab of Bacon was back in the news in the summer of 1994, when the long-lost trophy was found after a Camp Randall Stadium storage room was cleaned out. Wisconsin officials estimated that it had been missing since 1945; yet the scores of every Wisconsin-Minnesota game from 1930-70 were printed on the back of the slab. It is one of those Twilight Zonesque mysteries that remains unexplained, and contributes to the legend of Minnesota's and Wisconsin's "Border Battle" rivalry.

GOVERNOR'S VICTORY BELL

Minnesota vs. Penn State

Like Floyd of Rosedale, Minnesota's fourth and most recent traditional game trophy was founded by a pair of state governors.

Then-acting Governor Mark Singel of Pennsylvania and former Governor Arne Carlson of Minnesota established the Governor's Victory Bell on Sept. 4, 1993, the date of the first Minnesota-Penn State game. The contest, which took place at Beaver Stadium on the Penn State campus, not only marked the first game between the two teams, but also signified the inaugural Big Ten game for the Nittany Lions.

"As the Nittany Lions' initial conference opponent, Minnesota always will occupy a special place in Penn State football history, and we think it is appropriate to mark the occasion in this distinctive fashion," said Singel in 1993. "Governor Robert Casey was an early supporter of Penn State's move to the Big Ten Conference, and I know he looks forward to future conference games involving the Nittany Lions."

"Big Ten athletics has been a tremendously positive experience in the life of our state," said Carlson. "Minnesota's matchup against Penn State is a historic welcome to a school that will further enrich that experience for all of us. This trophy marks a very special occasion, and will allow us to remember it for years to come."

An artists' conception of the Governor's Victory Bell was presented by Singel and Carlson prior to the kickoff of that 1993 game, which Penn State won 38-20. The design of the trophy is a brass bell bearing the medallion of the Big Ten Conference, suspended from a wooden frame. At the top of the frame is a plaque which features the state seals of Minnesota and Pennsylvania, along with the following inscription:

Governor's Victory Bell
Presented annually to the winner of the Penn State-Minnesota football game
Established September 4, 1993
Governor Robert Casey, Pennsylvania
Governor Arne Carlson, Minnesota

At the bottom of the base, the Minnesota and Penn State athletics logos appear, along with individual brass plates for inscription of the scores of the games between the two teams.

After a two year hiatus between 1995-96, the battle for the Governor's Victory Bell returned in 1997 when Penn State earned a hard-fought 16-15 victory at Beaver Stadium. The 1998 game returned to the Metrodome for only the second time in the short history of the Bell, where the Nittany Lions earned a 27-17 win. Minnesota took the Victory Bell home for the first time in 1999 when the Golden Gophers scored a historic 24-23 upset over the second-ranked Nittany Lions at Beaver Stadium. In 2000, the Golden Gophers were again victorious, winning 25-16 at the Metrodome.

The Nittany Lions and Golden Gophers didn't meet in 2001 and 2002 and when the series renewed in 2003, the Gophers earned the right to keep the Bell with a 20-14 win in Happy Valley. Penn State claimed the bell for the first time in six years with their 44-14 win over Minnesota in 2005 and retained it with a 28-27 overtime win over the Gophers last season in the Metrodome. The two teams will not face each other again until 2009.

The addition of the Governor's Victory Bell to the Golden Gophers' list of traditional trophy games means that Minnesota now has four active "trophy" rivalries on its schedule, more than any other college football program in the country.

PRO FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The Pro Football Hall of Fame was officially opened on Sept. 7, 1963. Located in Canton, Ohio, the original two buildings that made up the Hall of Fame were 19,000-square-feet. Inducted that day were the first 17 members, including Minnesota's Bronko Nagurski. In May of 1971, the Hall of Fame became three buildings and 34,000 total square feet that featured more space for display areas, a movie theater, gift shop and research library. Visitor attendance reached 200,000 annually for the first time that year. Today, new displays and the Game Day Stadium showing the "100-yard Universe", an NFL Films production, adorn the Hall of Fame.

Currently, Minnesota has six former players who are enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. The most recent former player, Charlie Sanders, was enshrined August 4, 2007.

Nagurski is the only college player to be named a first team consensus All-American at two different positions before leading the Chicago Bears to three NFL Championships. He was inducted in 1963 as a charter member. Leo Nomellini was a three-time first team All-Big Ten player for Minnesota as well as a two-time All-American. He later went on to play for the San Francisco 49ers and played in every game of his professional career for 14 years. In 1970, he was named to the NFL's 25th anniversary team as one of the all-time great defensive tackles. He was inducted in 1969.

Bobby Bell was one of two Golden Gophers who brought the Outland Trophy to the U of M during his career. Bell won the award in 1962 before guiding the Kansas City Chiefs to two Super Bowls. Bell was inducted in 1983.

Bud Grant was an All-Big Ten end in 1948 and 1949 before he eventually became the head coach of the Minnesota Vikings. Grant coached the Vikings to 11 divisional titles and four Super Bowl appearances. He was enshrined in 1994.

Eller was a consensus All-American in 1963 and a three-time All-Big Ten selection during his U of M career. He went on to play 16 seasons in the NFL, 15 with the Minnesota Vikings. He was a five-time All-Pro and started at defensive end in four Super Bowls for the Vikings.

Sanders lettered for Minnesota in 1966 and 1967 as a tight end, earning All-Big Ten honors as a senior. He helped lead the Gophers to an 8-2 record and a share of the Big Ten title in 1967. Sanders moved to tight end as a senior where he caught 21 passes for 276 yards and two touchdowns. He was drafted by the Lions in the third round (74th overall pick) of the 1968 NFL Draft.

BOBBY BELL — 1983

COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

A total of 17 former Golden Gopher players are enshrined in the College Football Hall of Fame. They range from Edward L. Rogers, who scored the game-tying touchdown in the famous Little Brown Jug game against Michigan in 1903, to Bobby Bell, who brought the Outland Trophy to the University of Minnesota in 1962. Tom Brown in 2003 and Carl Eller in 2006 are the most recent University of Minnesota inductees.

In addition, three former Minnesota coaches, Bernie Bierman, Fritz Crisler and Henry Williams, have been inducted into the Hall as well.

The Hall of Fame moved from Kings Island, Ohio, to its current home in South Bend, Ind. The South Bend Hall of Fame opened in the summer of 1995.

The first members of the College Football Hall of Fame were selected in 1951. Today, there are over 800 players and coaches in the Hall.

The Hall of Fame is a part of the National Football Foundation, which was conceived in 1947 by the late Grantland Rice. In addition to sponsoring the Hall of Fame, the Foundation has awarded more than $3 million in graduate school scholarships to college football players.

GOPHERS ON THE RADIO

GOPHER SPORTS PROPERTIES

Gopher Sports Properties (GSP), a division of Learfield Communications Inc., is the official marketing & sales rights holder for University of Minnesota Athletics. Learfield Sports is a diverse media enterprise that manages multi-media rights for 35 of the country's premier collegiate athletic programs including the University of Minnesota. Learfield Sports specializes in managing, packaging and selling marketing and sponsorship opportunities connected with America's favorite collegiate teams.

Gopher Sports Properties provides a variety of advertising, marketing and promotional opportunities for corporate partners throughout the Twin Cities area and the state of Minnesota.

WCCO-AM 830 will serve as the flagship station for the Golden Gopher Radio Network again this season while Learfield will administer all production for the broadcasts, manage the on-air talent in addition to the sales for all broadcasts. Learfield partners with the Minnesota News Network (MNN) for network distribution to all of our greater Minnesota Affiliate Network.

WCCO has been broadcasting Golden Gopher Football every year since 1923 and Golden Gopher Basketball since the 1930s. WCCO is also in its sixth year as the radio home for the 2002 and 2003 national champion Golden Gopher Hockey program.

The play-by-play voice of the Gophers for the eighth straight season is Dave Lee. Lee is a six-time winner of the State Associated Press play-by-play award, including his call of the 2003 Sun Bowl victory over Oregon. Lee recently received the National Sportswriters and Sportscasters Award As Minnesota's Sportscaster of the Year for the second consecutive year and was also recognized by the Northwest Broadcast News Association for his play-by-play. Lee, the co-host of the popular WCCO Morning Show, served as the public address announcer for Golden Gopher Football for three years before stepping into the broadcast booth.

Dave Mona and Darrell Thompson will provide analysis. Mona is the chairman of Weber Shandwick Worldwide Minneapolis, a public relations firm. He is also a radio personality on WCCO, co-hosting the popular show "Sports Huddle" with Sid Hartman on Sunday mornings. Thompson, the all-time leading rusher in Golden Gopher history, also spent five years with the Green Bay Packers in the NFL. Thompson is currently the program manager for the Minneapolis Jaycees Charitable Foundation.

Mike Grimm, the voice of Golden Gopher Basketball since 2006, will host the pre-and-post-game shows. Grimm arrived in Gold Country in 2006 from KMOX Radio in St. Louis where he co-hosted the Chrysler-Jeep Sports Open Line – the nation's longest-running Sports Talk program. He was the lead weekday afternoon drive sports anchor and hosted pre-and post-game shows for the St. Louis Cardinals, Rams, Missouri Tigers and St. Louis Billikens.

WCCO also provides extended pre-game and post-game coverage of Golden Gopher Football. The pre-game show will start a minimum of an hour prior to kickoff and the post-game show will also run at least an hour in length.

CREDENTIALS
Requests for working media credentials for 2009 Minnesota home games at TCF Bank Stadium must be made online at gophersports.com. Please contact the Athletic Communications Office for more information at 612.625.4090. Credentials may be picked up at the Athletic Communications Office in the Bierman Building on Friday prior to the game, or on Saturday at the media will call area at TCF Bank Stadium. Credentials will be mailed at least one week prior to the game to the visiting SID for distribution to visiting media. Working media must enter the media entrance at TCF Bank Stadium.

CREDENTIALS POLICY
Media credentials are issued on a priority basis with television/radio stations originating a live broadcast, daily newspapers, national publications and television/radio stations who are covering for a nightly news show receiving top priority. Web sites will be evaluated on a game-by-game basis prior to receiving credentials. Freelance reporters and photographers must be on assignment and all credential requests must come through originating agency. Spouses, children and friends are not allowed in the TCF Bank Stadium press box. The University of Minnesota reserves the right to deny media credentials to any individual who is not affiliated with an official news gathering organization.

GOPHERSPORTS.COM
All Golden Gopher football information, including rosters, notes and weekly releases are posted on www.gophersports.com, the official web site of the Golden Gopher Athletics.

E-MAIL SERVICES
Press releases, game notes and advisories are e-mailed to members of the media who cover the Gophers on a regular basis. Media wishing to be added to the list should contact Andy Seeley.

PROFESSIONAL SCOUTS
Professional scouts should contact the Athletics Ticket Office at 612-624-8328 to purchase tickets for scouting purposes. Big Ten Conference policy does not permit professional scouts to be credentialed.

MEDIA PARKING
A limited amount of media parking is available at TCF Bank Stadium. Parking requests must be made through the Athletic Communications Office.

RADIO/TELEVISION
Minnesota's live television appearances are designated in accordance with Big Ten contractual agreements and guidelines. Radio booths are assigned for the Golden Gopher Radio Network and the opponent's flagship station/network. Booth assignments for additional opponent radio stations originating live broadcasts will be made on a space-available basis, with preference determined by the opponents' sports information offices.

PHOTOGRAPHERS
All photographers must present their media credentials at the media entrance prior to the game in order to receive a photographer's armband. Only photographers wearing those designated photo armbands will be permitted on the sidelines. In accordance with NCAA and Big Ten rules, photographers are not permitted to shoot within the 25-yard lines (bench area) and must stay behind the 12-foot restraining line that surrounds the field at all times. Requests for photo assistance should be directed to Eric Miller, while all requests for assistance with video should be directed to Mike Schaaf, director of video services.

INTERNET/TELEPHONE LINES
Wireless internet access will be available in the press box at TCF Bank Stadium. Internet access will also be available in the media work rooms near both the home and visiting locker rooms. A limited number of telephone lines will be available in the TCF Bank Stadium press box on a first-come, first-served basis. Media wishing to install their own telephone lines may contact University of Minnesota Networking and Telecommunications Services at 612.626.1336.

PRESS BOX SERVICES
Pregame notes, flip cards, stats and programs are available to the media in the press box prior to the game. Quarter, halftime and final statistics, a running play-by-play, post-game coach/student-athlete quotes and post-game notes will also be provided. A pregame meal will be served in the both press box and snacks will be available at halftime. Your media credential will be required at the time of service for the pregame meal. Beverages are available prior to, during and after the game.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS
Minnesota complies with an equal access policy. Following a 10-minute cooling off period and then his postgame radio show, Coach Tim Brewster and selected Minnesota players are available to the media in the interview room located near the Gophers' locker room. The visiting coach and student-athletes will be available in the visiting team interview room, which is located near the visiting team locker room. Requests for student-athletes should be made through the opponents' sports information representative in attendance.

MEDIA LUNCHEONS
Coach Brewster hosts a weekly media luncheon starting at noon each Tuesday throughout the season in the Gibson-Nagurski Complex. Coach Brewster will address the media at 1 p.m. Selected student-athletes will also be available following Coach Brewster's media conference, class schedule permitting. Media representatives covering the Golden Gophers on a regular basis are invited. For those unable to attend, Coach Brewster's comments and live video streaming will be available online at www.gophersports.com.

COACH BREWSTER/PLAYER INTERVIEWS
In addition to his weekly luncheon, Coach Brewster will conduct a media briefing from Noon-12:30 p.m. each Sunday at the Gibson-Nagurski Football Complex. He is also available to the media each Tuesday at 12:40 p.m. CST, on the Big Ten teleconference call. Call the Athletic Communications Office for the phone number to access the teleconference. Media unable to utilize these arrangements should contact the Athletic Communications Office.

In addition to Tuesday's luncheon, player interviews may be conducted Tuesday and Wednesday after the conclusion of practice, following a 10-minute cooling off period. All phone interviews for out-of-town media will be conducted Monday through Wednesday through the Athletic Communications Office. Home phone numbers for players and coaches will not be released, and they have been instructed not to conduct interviews if contacted without prior approval of Athletic Communications.

All interviews must not conflict with classes, meetings, training room treatments or other team obligations. The locker room and training room are closed to the media at all times. Requests for player and/or coach interviews, either in person or via the phone, will be arranged through the Athletic Communications Office. Please allow 24 hours in order to facilitate arrangements.

PRACTICE INFORMATION
The Golden Gopher football team practices on Sunday and Tuesday through Friday at the Gibson-Nagurski Football Complex and Rod Wallace Field, located at 15th Ave. SE and 8th St. All practices are closed to the general public. The first 20 minutes of Tuesday and Wednesday's practice are open to the media. Photographers can shoot B-Roll or still shots during this time. Please contact the Athletic Communications Office for practice times.

Television interviews with Coach Brewster will be conducted on a request basis only through the Athletic Communications Office.

All post-practice interviews with players or coaches will be conducted in the Hall of Traditions at the Gibson-Nagurski Football Complex following the completion of practice. All limitations on or alterations of these procedures for practice will be determined by Head Coach Tim Brewster through the Athletic Communications Office.

PHOTOGRAPH REQUESTS
All requests for digital photographs of players and coaches, logos or other multimedia items must be made to Jeff Keiser in the Athletic Communications office. He can be reached at keiser@umn.edu or at (612) 626-1097.
